

EAZA Amphibian and Reptile TAGs joint meeting 2025
(12.5.-17.5.2025, Allwetterzoo Münster, Germany)

INVITATION

Dear colleagues,

Let us to invite you to participate in the EAZA Amphibian and Reptile TAGs joint meeting 2025. The meeting, kindly hosted by Allwetterzoo Münster, Germany, will be held from 12 May to 17 May 2025.

The meeting will commence on 12 May with icebreaker and will conclude on 17 May (departures). The complete detailed program and registration form with further instructions will follow.

Let us on this occasion to express our great thanks to Allwetterzoo Münster, the host of our meeting! It is a renowned institution in terms of herpetology and husbandry and conservation of reptiles and amphibians.

We look forward to meeting many of you at Allwetterzoo Münster!

Yours sincerely,

Ivan Rehak

Chairman

EAZA Reptile TAG

Gerardo Garcia

Chairman

EAZA Amphibian TAG

Important notes:

Call for papers!

Please, provide us (and respective vice-chair) with name(s) and requested time(s) of presentation(s) you intend to present.

Please, do it soon to allow us to prepare the meeting programme in time!

We would want to encourage you to share with others actively your experiences with amphibian and reptile husbandry, relevant information on your/yours institution herpetological conservation and research activities, herpetological collection(s) and plans of its (their) development, herpetological excursions/expeditions and any other relevant herpetological issues, including updates of your EEPs, ESBs and monitoring programme(s).

Basic meeting schedule:

12.5. - arrival of participants and icebreaker

13.-15.5. - meetings, getting to know the host zoo and its herpetological programmes

16.5. - excursion

17.5. - departure of participants